SIMONSENTS & COMPANY

Company Profile

African-rooted. Globally ambitious. Focused on enduring greatness.

Who we are

Simonsents & Company is a management consulting institution and a member of Simonsents Group. We help ambitious organisations make consequential decisions, solve complex problems, strengthen performance and build enduring value.

Our philosophy is that we are not merely in the consultancy business; we are in the Greatness Business. We combine analytical rigour, practical advisory and implementation-minded thinking to help clients move from problem diagnosis to solutions and execution.

Our purpose, mission and values

Our purpose is to attract, invoke, retain, inspire, excite, provoke and fascinate people to greatness. Our mission is to help ambitious organisations create lasting value for enduring greatness.

Our values include excellence, integrity, ownership, impact, respect, collaboration and continuous improvement. These values guide how we think, advise, work with clients and take responsibility for our contribution.

Our capabilities

Our integrated capabilities span strategy; transformation and implementation; growth, marketing and sales; digital, technology and data; capital and investment; mergers and acquisitions; operations and effectiveness; business construct; innovation and design; risk and resilience; sustainability; and tax management advisory.

Specialist practices

Specialist practices and solutions include Strategy Advisory — Make Competition Irrelevant™; Execution 5.0™ and Task Force™; 360° BizSetup Hub™; Taxpert; Law Optimum™; and Simonsents AI. These practices connect specialist expertise with practical client needs.

How we work

We start by understanding the real challenge and establishing the facts. We design choices and solutions that fit the client context, mobilise the right expertise, support implementation and seek to embed capability for lasting results.
